

Senior Mechanical MEP Engineer

Responsibilities:

- Technical design and quality control on assigned projects
- Running HVAC and plumbing calculations and select equipment
- Production of construction documents with a focus on HVAC and plumbing systems for new buildings, renovations and additions to existing facilities
- Creating and maintaining project schedules
- Ability to discuss systems and equipment with architects, owners, and contractors
- Providing coordination of project designs with other disciplines
- Maintaining positive client relationships

Qualifications:

- Have a degree in Architectural Engineering or Mechanical Engineering
  - Have a PE License and at least 6+ years of relevant building systems design experience
- or-
- Have, in lieu of a PE License, possess at least 12+ years of closely related HVAC design experience within the MEP industry
  - Possess PM or Lead experience - Ability to handle projects from start to finish and jump in with design when needed
  - Enjoy leading and mentoring staff
  - Ability to interact with clients both verbally and in writing to throughout entire life cycle of projects
  - Have knowledge of building mechanical codes and the ability to perform accurate load calculations

- Possess successful verbal and written communication skills
- Proficient with AutoCAD and MS office suite (Word & Excel)
- Have the ability to meet fast-paced deadlines while maintaining quality design
- Experience with Revit or BIM preferred but not required

Culture

- Flexible Work Hours
- Casual Dress Code

Benefits

- Paid Training for Professional Development
- Competitive Salary
- Paid Holidays and Time Off
- Medical and Dental insurance
- Gym access on site
- Minimal Travel